Linking, Downloading and Sharing policy

If you're an educator in any college or university, or an official in any scientific society, museum, botanical garden, zoo or comparable, and want to distribute copies of FLAAR Reports on digital photography (www.digital-photography.org), on Maya archaeology, ethnobotany or ethnozoology (www.maya-archaeology.org) or wide-format inkjet printing (www.large-format-printers.org) to your staff or students, please just let us know so that can authorize the distribution.

If your museum, university, college, botanical garden, or zoo want to receive all FLAAR reports in the future (similar to a subscription format), there will be no charge if you arrange a distribution system for your institution by linking to our www.digital-photography.org or www.maya-archaeology.org (currently available only for museums, universities, and comparable).

There is no cost for distributing this report, but it is preferable that the system is authorized by FLAAR publications. We prefer that the link to the actual download comes through our web page. In other words, you can link to our web page whereby the PDF can be downloaded at no cost.

This report is not intended to be put onto any other web site (other than museum, university, botanical garden, zoo) and only when authorized. This report is not available to be placed on other web sites (that are not a recognized educational resource).

One reason our reports are not intended for being copied is that this report may have been updated and we have no way to provide updates if we don't know (via communication) who is posting our PDFs.

To get a legitimate version we suggest you get it from www.maya-archaeology.org, www.digital-photography.org or our new site in 3D technology that covers 3D scanning of cultural heritage, ethno-botanical and ethno-zoology, www.3d-scanners-3d-software-reviews.org.

Updates and improvements
