PLEASE NOTE

This report has not been licensed to any other web site nor to any organization.

Also, since this report may be updated if you got your version from somewhere else, it may be an obsolete edition.

To obtain a legitimate copy, which you know is the complete report, please obtain your original and full report directly from www.maya-archaeology.org, www.digital-photography.org, or our new web site on 3D technology for cultural heritage featuring 3D scanning for ethno-botany and ethno-zoology www.3d-scanners-3-d-software-reviews.org

If you are a professor, instructor at any college or university, or an officer at any learned society, museum, botanical garden, zoological park or comparable, and you wish to distribute copies of this to your staff or students, please simply let us know so that we can authorize the distribution.

If your museum, university, college, botanical garden, zoological facility wishes to receive all future FLAAR Reports (comparable to a Subscription format), there is no charge if we arrange a download system for your institution (available currently only for museums, universities, and comparable)

There is no cost to distribute this report, but we do wish to authorize it from the FLAAR publication system. We have five web designers and programmers in-house on staff.

If you find any mistakes or omissions in this report, or if you know of a Pre-Columbian society that we forgot to list, please let us know so that we can consider it. Write FrontDesk@FLAAR.org
